DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. The amendments to the claims filed on September 8, 2009 have been fully considered. The obviousness-type double patenting rejection has been obviated and is thus hereby withdrawn.

Terminal Disclaimer

2. The terminal disclaimer filed on September 8, 2009 disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application which would extend beyond the expiration date of US 7,547,729 has been reviewed and is accepted. The terminal disclaimer has been recorded.

3. Pursuant MPEP 803.02, the search and examination was extended. Prior art was found that anticipates the non-elected species of

Therefore, the Markush claims were rejected and non-elected species maintained withdrawn from further consideration. The examined claims are objected to because the search and examination has been limited to the elected species. Applicant will be entitled to rejoinder and examination of further non-elected species upon allowability of the generic claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Pond et al. The reference teaches the compound shown above, Section 3.
